Blending ergonomic design with cutting-edge technology, the Apollo Task Light provides up to 50,000 hours of LED life – which equates to 24 years of typical office use. Highly flexible and easy to use, the Apollo will increase workplace productivity.

Apollo's design is ergonomic and intuitive, allowing the user to change the position of the light quickly and easily. The design can also be folded up when not in use, to free up valuable workspace.

Single Shadow LED technology relieves eye fatigue and discomfort, allowing you to perform under optimum conditions. Apollo can also be dimmed down to 10% of its maximum output.
